Bob Howsam

President & Chief Executive Officer

Bob Howsam returned to the helm of the Cincinnati Reds on July 11, 1983, dedicated to the same ideas that guided him during his earlier tenure as the team's President and Chief Executive Officer. His primary goal is to produce a winning, exciting team for Reds' fans.

In rapid-fire order after the conclusion of the season, Howsam hired Vern Rapp as Manager; brought back Tony Perez, one of the team's best and most popular players; and took the Reds into the free agent era by signing Dave Parker, one of baseball's premier players of the past decade.

The Reds had remarkable success during Howsam's first term in office. He took over the team as General Manager on Jan. 22, 1967, after a successful stint in the same position with the St. Louis Cardinals. Howsam was elected Executive Vice President on February 6, 1967 and became President of the team on March 12, 1973.

Howsam's contributions were vital to the success of the franchise, both on and off the field. He presided over the move from Crosley Field to Riverfront Stadium in 1970, but before that was working to strengthen the farm system, expand the organization staff and establish promotion and public relations programs that would be necessary in the new large stadium.

Long recognized as one of baseball's most shrewd traders, Bob engineered a series of deals to improve the team. All of this planning and work paid dividends as the Reds became baseball's dominant team in the 1970s, winning five Western Division titles; four National League pennants; and back-to-back World Series in 1975 and 1976. Howsam was named Major League Executive of the Year in 1973 by The Sporting News.

Bob's beginnings in baseball go back to 1948 when his family purchased and he ran the Denver team, turning it into the best drawing minor league team in baseball, setting a 10-year attendance record.

Howsam established many programs for young people, including the Straight-A Student program, and attracted nearly a half-million fans one season to watch a team at the Class A level. He was twice named by The Sporting News as Minor League Executive of the Year, once at Class A and again at Class AAA after the Bears had moved up in classification.

Bob was one of the founders of the American Football League, owning the Denver Broncos in their early years. But baseball was and is his game. After a few years in the investment business, Bob returned to baseball in 1964 as General Manager of the Cardinals.

After running the front office operations of the Reds for 11 years, Howsam became the team's Vice Chairman on March 1, 1978, serving as an advisor and consultant. He was a member of baseball's Executive Committee; Player Relations Committee; and Radio-Television Committee. He is currently on the National League's Executive Committee.

Robert L. Howsam Sr. is married to the former Janet Johnson. They have two sons — Robert Jr., who is Vice President/Marketing for the Reds, and Edwin, who lives in Scottsdale, AZ, and is a Reds' Scouting Supervisor.

WOODY WOODWARD, Assistant General Manager

Woodward handles player contract negotiations and is involved in all facets of player personnel work. He was named to his present position in November, 1980, after 2½ years as the Reds' Minor League Field Coordinator. He was a National League infielder for eight seasons, the last 3½ with the Reds. He was also a Reds' TV commentator for one season. Woodward was baseball coach at his alma mater, Florida State University, where he had been an All-American player and earned Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in education. He and his wife Pamela have two daughters and a son.

ROBERT L. HOWSAM JR., Vice President/Marketing

Howsam coordinates and supervises all marketing activities, including season and group ticket sales; advertising; promotions; and the 580 and Kings Island Dugout Gift Shops. He has a marketing background that includes three years with General Electric in advertising and sales promotion and 11 years with New York advertising agencies, including Doyle Dane Bernbach; McCann Erickson; and, most recently, as a Vice President of Dancer Fitzgerald Sample. The son of Reds President Bob Howsam Sr., he worked in various phases of baseball management when the family owned the Denver Bears. Howsam joined the Reds in September, 1983. He has a Bachelor's Degree from Claremont Men's College in California and a Master's Degree from the University of Missouri. His wife Ginny is Creative Manager for Ted Bates Advertising in New York.

Bender is in charge of the Reds' farm system and involved in all facets of player evaluation. He is responsible for the instruction, development and evaluation of the young talent on the six minor league teams in the farm system. Chief is in his 43rd year in baseball. He played and managed in the minor leagues for 12 seasons. He was with the St. Louis Cardinals organization from 1948 to 1966 before joining the Reds as Director of Player Personnel in 1967. He was named to his present position in April, 1978. He and his wife Dotty have a son.

D.L. PORCO, Vice President/Controller

Dave Concepcion

No. 13

Shortstop

Born: 6-17-48, Aragua, Venezuela

Ht: 6-1

Bats: Right

Wt: 180

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as free agent in Venezuela, 9-12-68. (Scout Wilfredo Calvino).

1983 SEASON: A painful problem in his left shoulder, which ultimately led to post-season surgery, was a major factor in Concepcion's lowest batting average since 1972, but the veteran shortstop had no falloff in the field where he remained one of the best in the business . . . Concepcion also remained one of the Reds' top leaders, an area that took on added stature when he was named Team Captain, the first the Reds had had since Pete Rose in 1978 . . . The move was one of the first made by Bob Howsam after he took control of the club in mid-July . . . Concepcion responded to his new responsibilities with his best hitting of the season, a .355 pace (33-93) over 24 games that boosted his average from a season-low .219 to .250 . . . Concepcion hit only one home run during the season, but it was a big one—a grand slam off Chicago's Bill Campbell . . . It was the fifth bases-loaded home run of Concepcion's career, a total exceeded by only three Cincinnati players in history—Johnny Bench, George Foster and Vada Pinson . . . After 14 years with the Reds, Concepcion now ranks third in the team's history with 1,901 games played; third with 6,845 at-bats; third with 263 stolen bases; and fourth with 1,846 hits . . .

CAREER: Concepcion had one of his best seasons in 1982 and was named to Silver Slugger team for second year in row by vote of managers, coaches . . . Award goes to top hitter at each position, based on power, RBIs, average, clutch hits . . . Dave was named MVP of the All-Star game in Montreal after hitting a two-run homer to win the game . . . It was his eighth consecutive selection to the All-Star team and ninth overall . . . Concepcion was named club MVP by BBWAA in 1981 when he hit .306, best average of his career . . . Off to fast start, hitting .356 with 21 RBIs in April to earn N.L. Player of Month award . . . All of this despite off-season surgery to remove calcium deposits from right elbow . . . Bothered by elbow problem in 1980 when he hit .260, lowest average in eight years . . . But as result of injury he developed original play, one-hop throw on artificial turf from deep shortstop position to first base . . . It was designed to ease stress on his arm, but he has continued to use it after discovering ball picks up speed with bounce . . . Has won five Gold Gloves (1974-5-6-7-9) as top defensive shortstop in N.L. . . . When he hit .301 in 1978, became first Reds shortstop to reach .300 level in 65 years, dating back to Joe Tinker in 1913 . . . Achieved personal thrill in 1979 when he hit home run into red seats at Riverfront off Bill Lee, Montreal . . . Won Roberto Clemente award in 1977 as top Latin-American player in major leagues . . . Spent only two years in minors, including just 42 games at Triple-A level . . .

PERSONAL: David Ismael Concepcion and his wife Delia (Montenegro) live in Maracay, Venezuela with their two sons—David Alejandro (4-28-75) and David Eduardo (1-28-82) . . .

Dan Driessen

No. 22

First Baseman

Born: 7-29-51, Hilton Head, SC

Ht: 5-11

Bats: Left

Wt: 200

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as free agent, 8-29-69 (Scout Bill Jamieson).

1983 SEASON: Driessen put together one of his better offensive performances, built around a strong outpouring of hits through the middle of the season . . . Dan batted .375 in June and .338 in July and seemed to be well on his way to his highest average since his rookie season . . . Driessen took a .291 average into September, but a persistent problem just below his left knee, which required post-season surgery, took its toll . . . Driessen still finished at the .277 mark to lead the club . . . The veteran first baseman was at his best just after the All-Star break when he went on a 12-game hitting streak, longest of the season for a member of the Reds, which included a three-hit game and seven two-hit games . . . He was 21-for-41 in that period for a .512 average . . . Dan paid no attention to the ball parks he was playing in, hitting .277 both at home and on the road, and he was almost as even against the opposition, batting .279 against Eastern teams and .276 against the West . . . Despite his knee ailment and a hamstring problem that put him on the disabled list in June, Driessen was his usual flawless self in the field . . . He made no errors in the first half of the season, finished the year with just four and led all N.L. first basemen with a .996 fielding percentage . . .

CAREER: Driessen has been one of Reds' most productive hitters, averaging 16 homers and 71 RBIs during his six full seasons as Reds' first baseman, excluding 1981 season when he was hampered by injuries and playing time was limited to 82 games . . . Very selective at plate and led N.L. with 93 walks in 1980 . . . Driessen was N.L.'s first designated hitter, batting .357 in that role during Reds' four-game sweep of Yankees in 1976 World Series . . . When he led team with 28 stolen bases in 1978, it was first time first baseman had done that for Reds in 32 years, dating back to Bert Haas in 1946 . . . Compiled overall .318 average during 3½ years in Reds' farm system, including .409 at Indianapolis that earned him June promotion to Reds in 1973 as third baseman . . . Batted .301 balance of season and finished third in Rookie of Year voting . . . Remained at third through 1974 season before eventually taking over at first base . . . Dan just missed setting a N.L. record for first basemen in 1982 when he committed only three errors for a .998 fielding percentage . . . He played in 144 games with 150 needed for record consideration . . . He played 97 consecutive games without an error from Apr. 30 to Aug. 29 . . . Dan also collected his 1,000th major league hit in 1982 off Pittsburgh's Kent Tekulve and hit his first grand slam homer off Jim Kaat . . . Dan shared the club RBI lead with Cesar Cedeno at 57 . . .

PERSONAL: Daniel Driessen and his wife Bonnie (Gary) live in Cincinnati, OH, with their two children — Dominique (1-5-77) and Devon (10-16-79) . . . 1969 graduate of Riley H.S. in Bluffton, SC, and was signed that summer as free agent after tryout by Reds' scout . . .

Nick Esasky

No. 12

Third Baseman

Born: 2-24-60, Hialeah, FL

Ht: 6-3

Bats: Right

Wt: 200

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 1 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1978. (Scout George Zuraw).

1983 SEASON: Esasky became Reds' regular third baseman in mid-June when he was recalled from Indianapolis after Johnny Bench announced he would retire at the end of the season . . . His solid all-round play and power hitting earned him a spot on the Topps Rookie All-Star team . . . Esasky showed the same awesome power in the N.L. that he had exhibited throughout his minor league career, but, oddly, his first major league home run was an inside-the-park sprint off Atlanta knuckleballer Phil Niekro . . . Nick clouted 12 homers for the Reds after collecting 14 in the first two months of the season at Indianapolis . . . Esasky, who lives in Marietta, GA, just outside Atlanta, treated the home folks by batting .579 (11-for-19) at Atlanta Stadium, including two doubles, a triple, three homers and eight RBIs . . . He also got his first major league grand slam home run against the Braves, but that was in Cincinnati off Steve Bedrosian on Sept. 14 . . . Nick hit much better against lefthanded pitching (.366), but collected 10 of his 12 homers off righthanders . . . He finished with a flurry, batting .323 in September to boost his average from .250 to .265 . . .

CAREER: Named MVP of his Waterbury team in 1980 when he led Class AA Eastern League with 30 homers while batting .270 with 82 RBIs . . . Has tremendous power with most homers capable of going out of any ball park . . . Off to slow start in 1981 in first try at Class AAA with one homer, 10 RBIs at end of May, but hit at .300 pace rest of season and finished with 17 homers, 62 RBIs . . . Named to post-season league All-Star teams in both 1979 (Tampa) and 1980 (Waterbury) . . . Esasky was vital cog as Indianapolis won the 1982 American Association championship, hitting 27 homers in regular season and three more in playoffs . . .

PERSONAL: Nicholas Andrew Esasky and his wife Vicki (New) live in Marietta, GA, with daughters Jennifer (3-14-78) and Kimberly (5-23-83) . . . Grew up in Miami, FL, earned all-state honors in baseball at Carol City H.S., where he graduated in 1978.

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 180

Bats: Right

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as free agent, 5-7-78. (Scout George Zuraw).

1983 SEASON: Hayes is still looking for the consistency that will let him become a solid major league pitcher . . . He has shown that he can be very effective when he is on his game, but his 1983 season was more like a ride on a roller-coaster . . . After a struggling early season, Ben dropped back to Indianapolis where he quickly won twice in six relief appearances and moved back to the N.L. in late May . . . From early June until after the All-Star break, Hayes was almost untouchable, allowing just one earned run in 18 appearances, covering 18.2 innings, for a 0.48 ERA and earning three saves . . . Paul Householder

No. 7
Outfielder
Born: 9-4-58, Columbus, OH
Ht: 6-0 Bats: Both
Wt: 185 Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 2 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1976. (Scout Porter Blinn)

1983 SEASON: Householder had a rough beginning, due to a bout with hepatitis that eliminated most of spring training for him and kept him on the disabled list until the end of April . . . Once he began playing on a regular basis, however, he moved into high gear . . . From mid-May through the end of June, Paul hit at a .321 pace (42-131) . . . Perhaps due to the lingering effects of the illness, Householder hit much better in the first half of the season (.274) than in the second half (.241), although he did put together a career-high nine-game hitting streak in September (.355, 11-31) . . . September was also his most productive month with 18 RBIs . . . Householder's .991 fielding percentage led all N.L. outfielders and his 24 doubles led the Reds . . .

CAREER: Compiled solid credentials as "complete" player throughout minor league career, averaging 13.5 homers, 27 stolen bases during his five full seasons . . . Named to league All-Star teams four consecutive years in three different leagues (1978-Florida State; 1979-Southern; 1980, 1981-American Association) . . . Tom Hume

Pitcher

Born: 3-29-53, Cincinnati, OH

Ht: 6-1

Bats: Right

Wt: 185

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 1 draft choice, secondary phase, January, 1972. (Scout George Zuraw)

1983 SEASON: Hume felt the after-effects of a 1982 operation on his right knee and it was not until the latter part of the 1983 season that he began to regain the form that had established him as one of the N.L.'s premier relief pitchers . . . From mid-July through the end of the season, Tom had a 2.37 earned run average, allowing just 10 runs in 38 innings while posting a 2-1 record with 4 saves . . . Hume's knee operation went well, but his leg was apparently not at full strength when the season opened . . . The result was a change in his normal delivery that led to an arm problem and a trip to the disabled list that knocked him out of action from mid-May until mid-June . . .

CAREER: Hume goes into the 1984 season with a career total of 82 saves, second behind Clay Carroll's 102 in club history . . . Hume was primarily starter through six seasons in Reds' farm system, but recorded his first major league victory on Sept. 11, 1977, with seven shutout innings of relief against Dodgers . . . Worked in starting rotation in first half of both 1978 and 1979 seasons, but found best success in bullpen . . . Had 4-1 record, 2.08 ERA in 21 games last half of 1978 season . . . Emerged as one of best in business in 1979 . . . From All-Star break to end of season, made 28 relief appearances with 17 saves, 4 wins, 1.44 ERA . . . His overall 2.76 ERA for season was second in N.L. missing ERA title when Houston's J.R. Richard worked 16 shutout innings in last two starts . . . Named by Sporting News as co-winner with Rollie Fingers as 1980 Fireman of Year when he put together 25 save, 9 wins, 2.56 ERA . . . Missed Relief Man of Year by one point under different formula . . . Added 13 saves, 9 wins in 1981 with dazzling stretch run in September . . . In 14 appearances, allowed 2 runs in 18.2 innings (0.95 ERA) with 3 wins, 5 saves . . . Streak included seven games in row without giving up hit . . . Tom missed two months of the 1982 season with the operation to repair torn cartilage in his right knee, but still recorded 17 saves, 7th best in the league . . . He also made his first All-Star appearance, retiring the final batter in the game at Montreal to earn a save . . .

PERSONAL: Thomas Hubert Hume Jr. lives in Palmetto, FL, with his wife Susan (Holland) and their two children—Bradley (11-13-76) and Nicole (6-14-79) . . . 1971 graduate of Northeast H.S. (St. Petersburg, FL) where he was named top baseball player in county . . . Attended Manatee (FL) J.C. . . .

Frank Pastore

No. 35

Pitcher

Born: 8-21-57, Alhambra, CA

Ht: 6-3

Bats: Right

Wt: 205

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 2 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1975. (Scouts Larry Barton Sr. & Larry Barton Jr.)

1983 SEASON: Pastore is hoping to take up in 1984 when he left off in 1983 . . . Frank posted a 3-0 record and a 2.79 ERA in September/October, allowing 3 runs or less in all of his six starts . . . One of the things that helped him was an experiment with a knuckle ball that he hopes to add to his collection of pitches . . . Pastore won two of his first three starts in impressive fashion, but his early dreams turned into a nightmare when he didn't win again until after the All-Star break . . . Frank turned it around with three strong starts to begin the second half of the season, allowing just 5 earned runs in 23 innings (1.96 ERA) . . . One of the games was a two-hitter to beat the Phillies . . .

CAREER: Impressive spring training in 1979 let Pastore jump from Class AA Nashville to Reds' bullpen, after four years in farm system as starter . . . Pitched three shutout innings on Opening Day and had 4 saves and 1 win in first 11 appearances . . . Sent to Indianapolis at end of May, where he posted 7-2 record as starter and was recalled in late July . . . Posted 5-2 record, 2.10 ERA over last two months of season, including 7-1 win at Astrodome on Sept. 23 that kept Reds in first place and 4-hit shutout over Atlanta five days later that clinched Western Division title . . . Reds' top winner in 1980 with 13, despite missing six weeks in mid-season with injury to middle finger of right hand . . . Opened 1980 season with 3-hit shutout over Atlanta, first Opening Day shutout by Reds pitcher in 37 years . . . The problem with his middle finger (partially separated tendon) returned in June, 1982, and put Pastore on the disabled list for a month . . .

PERSONAL: Frank Enrico Pastore and his wife Gina (Pignotti) live in Upland, CA, with their son Frank (5-29-81) . . . 1975 graduate of Damien H.S. (LaVerne, CA) where he was named to all-state team after posting 14-1, 0.96 ERA . . .

Tony Perez

No. 24

First Baseman

Born: 5-14-42, Camaguey, Cuba

Ht: 6-2

Bats: Right

Wt: 210

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: From Philadelphia for player to be named, 12-5-83

1983 SEASON: Old habits die hard for Perez, who has spent a long and distinguished major league career "carrying" teams with his explosive bat . . . This season was no different for Tony, even though he had joined the Phillies to be a pinch-hitter and occasional first baseman . . . When the season opened, an injury cleared the way for Perez to start at first base . . . It was a role he would not give up easily . . . Perez was a kid again as he "carried" the Phillies for the first six weeks of the season and into first place in the Eastern Division, on their way to the National League pennant . . . By May 1, he was batting .391, the top average in the league . . . Through May 10, he had 23 RBIs in 25 games, including five game-winners . . . Along the way he had a 10-game hitting streak (.421, 16-38) that was the longest on the Philadelphia team all season . . . Tony's biggest outburst was on May 1 against Houston, when he had a single, double and homer and five RBIs . . . On May 6 in Montreal, he hit a two-run homer in the 9th to beat Bryn Smith . . . Of his eight game-winning RBIs, in fact, four of them came on homers . . . He nailed Bruce Sutter in the 9th for two runs to beat St. Louis on June 6; repeated against Pittsburgh's Rod Scurry for a pair in the 7th on June 11; and then beat Mike Proly of the Cubs with a solo shot in the 7th on Aug. 16 . . . It was vintage Tony Perez . . .

CAREER: Perez spent the first 17 years of his professional career in the Reds' organization, beginning at Geneva of the New York-Penn League as a 17-year-old out of Cuba in 1960 . . . A year later, he led that league with a .348 average, 160 hits and 132 RBIs and was on his way to stardom . . . Along the way, he stopped off in San Diego to become the Pacific Coast League Most Valuable Player in 1964 . . . He finished that season in a Reds' uniform, which he was to wear for the next 12 years . . . In his last 10 years with the Reds (1967-76), Perez had more runs-batted-in (1,028) than any other player in major league baseball, even though he never won an RBI championship . . . Tony was the picture of consistency, collecting at least 90 RBIs in every season . . . His best overall season was 1970, when he batted .317 with 40 homers and 129 RBIs . . . While playing for the Reds, Perez was in five Championship Series and four World Series and he was a major reason the Reds were there . . . He appeared in eight All-Star games and was the MVP of the 1967 game at Anaheim when he hit a 15th inning home run off Catfish Hunter to win the game . . . Perez was the first player ever to hit a homer into the red seats at Riverfront Stadium . . . Tony is in the Reds' all-time Top Five in games, at bats, runs, hits, doubles, homers, extra base hits, total bases and RBIs . . . After leaving the Reds following the 1976 season, Perez played three years in Montreal and three in Boston before joining Philadelphia in 1983 . . . He was a regular the first four of those seasons, averaging 87 RBIs . . . His career RBI total of 1,575 ranks 18th on the all-time list . . . All 20 of the men ahead of him are in the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown . . . Perez leads all active players in RBIs and his total of exactly 1,400 N.L. RBIs ranks 10th in league history . . . Joe Price

Pitcher

Born: 11-29-56, Inglewood, CA

Ht: 6-4

Bats: Right

Wt: 210

Throws: Left

1983 SEASON: After making only one start in 100 appearances in the two previous seasons, Price was converted to a starting role late in spring training and responded to the challenge in brilliant style . . . He pitched a two-hitter to beat the Cubs in his first start of the season . . . Through his first eight starts, he had a 4-2 record and a 2.27 ERA that ranked fourth in the league, even though he had to sit out 21 days during that time with an elbow problem . . . Joe was at his best in July, when he was named as the N.L. Pitcher of the Month . . . He won his first five starts that month, allowing only five runs in 36.1 innings for a 1.24 ERA . . . To that point in the season, he had been one of the most consistent pitchers in the N.L., averaging nearly eight innings in his 18 starts and allowing three runs or less in 16 of them . . . His 2.58 ERA ranked fifth . . . He had struck out a career high nine Dodgers in a June game . . . But in his final July start, Price began to have problems with his left shoulder and he was to pitch only twice more the rest of the season, once in August and once in September . . . The strain was believed to be a result of the conversion from short relief work to the longer starting assignments and is not expected to be a factor in 1984 . . . Price's final 1983 ERA of 2.88 ranked seventh in the league and his .625 winning percentage (10-6) was also seventh . . . Price did his best work against Eastern Division teams, posting a 7-1 record and 2.07 ERA in 10 starts . . .

CAREER: Named MVP of Billings team in 1977, first pro season . . . Followed with 10-4 record at Tampa in 1978 with 1.47 ERA, second in Florida State League behind teammate Scott Brown . . . Promoted from Indianapolis to Reds in mid-June, 1980, and had equal success as starter and reliever . . . Over last 16 appearances (8 starts, 8 relief) compiled 6-3 record and 2.55 ERA . . . Lost only to Giants (3 times) and was 7-0 against rest of N.L. . . . Pitched 8 shutout innings in 3-hitter over Atlanta on last day of 1980 season . . . Worked only in relief in 1981 as only lefthander on staff . . . Worked 10 consecutive appearances without allowing run in May/June, allowing 5 hits in 15 innings . . . Closed out season with no earned runs in last 13 appearances, allowing 6 hits in 13 innings . . . Only loss in 6-1 season was to Eastern Division champ Montreal . . . Joe made only one start in 1982, along with 58 relief appearances . . . He did his best work at Riverfront Stadium, posting 1.89 ERA in 26 appearances with 1-1 record and 1 save . . .

PERSONAL: Joseph Walter Price is single and lives in Arlington, TX . . . Graduated Santana HS (Santee, CA) and played varsity baseball at both Oklahoma State U. and U. of Oklahoma . . .

Gary Redus

No. 2

Outfielder

Born: 11-1-56, Limestone County, AL

Ht: 6-1

Bats: Right

Wt: 180

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 15 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1978. (Scout Larry Doughty).

1983 SEASON: Redus put together an outstanding rookie season, showing the same blend of speed and power that earned him rave notices in the minor leagues . . . His 39 stolen bases ranked seventh overall in the N.L. and were the most by a Reds rookie since Bob Bescher stole 54 in 1909 . . . Gary also finished in the N.L. top ten in triples (fifth with 9) and runs scored (ninth with 90), despite having to miss almost one-fourth of the season with a nagging hamstring problem . . . Redus led all N.L. rookies in stolen bases, triples, runs scored and game-winning RBIs (11) . . . His total of 17 home runs not only led the Reds, but was the highest total by a Cincinnati rookie since Bernie Carbo hit 21 in 1970 . . . Redus got off to a great start, hitting a home run off Phil Niekro on Opening Day as well as contributing a spectacular fence-crashing catch . . . After the first week of the season, he was hitting .381 and had scored 8 runs in 5 games . . . But a few days later he injured his left hamstring and had to sit out 19 days . . . He returned with a two homer game against Dick Ruthven and continued to average nearly one run scored per game, reaching home plate 34 times in his first 36 games . . . He had 32 multi-hit games, including four three-hit games and one four-hit game . . .

CAREER: Broke in with one of most incredible records in baseball history with Billings in short-season Pioneer Rookie League, where he batted .462 with 117 hits, 100 runs, 17 homers, 62 RBIs and 42 stolen bases in just 68 games . . . His average is second highest ever recorded in pro baseball, trailing only .477 by Walter Malmquist of York in Nebraska State League in 1913 . . . Earned MVP honors again for Tampa in 1980 where he batted .301 and was second in Florida State League with 50 steals, 16 home runs . . . Redus had a sensational 1982 season, leading Indianapolis to the American Association championship as he batted .333 with 24 homers, 93 RBIs and a league-leading 54 stolen bases in 59 attempts . . . Gary had 16 homers, 66 RBIs during the last 55 games of the season, then added two homers, six RBIs in the playoffs . . . He was MVP of his team, named to the American Association all-star team and the Topps Class AAA all-star team . . . Moving up to the Reds in September, Redus had seven two-hit games among the 20 he started and recorded 11 stolen bases in 13 tries . . .

PERSONAL: Gary Eugene Redus and his wife Minnie (Diggs) live in Courtland, AL, with their two daughters—Lakesha (11-22-78) and Manesha (11-1-81) . . . 1974 graduate of Tanner (AL) H.S., where he earned all-state honors in baseball, basketball, football . . . 1976 graduate of Calhoun (AL) J.C. and attended Athens (AL) State College, where he was named NAIA All-American in baseball . . .

Wt: 200

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 1 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1980. (Scout Reno DeBenedetti).

1983 SEASON: Robinson got off to a slow start, but made up for lost time with a fast finish as he got his first taste of Triple-A baseball and found it much to his liking . . . The big righthander went into June with just one victory at Waterbury after being that team's biggest winner a year earlier . . . Then things began to fall into place for him as he lowered his ERA to 3.60, 11th best mark in the league . . . That earned an August promotion to Indianapolis, where Robinson proceeded to reel off four straight victories, two of them complete games . . .

A durable performer who played in 135 of his team's 139 games, Rowdon led all Eastern League third basemen with a .940 fielding percentage . . .

CAREER: After playing only briefly in 1981, Rowdon had a solid first pro season in 1982 and played a major role for the Appleton team that won the Midwest League championship . . . Jeff Russell

No. 46

Pitcher

Born: 9-2-61, Cincinnati, Ohio

Ht: 6-4

Bats: Right

Wt: 200

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 5 draft choice, regular phase, June, 1979. (Scout Gene Bennett)

1983 SEASON: Russell continued his rapid rise through the Reds' farm system and got his first taste of life in the major leagues . . . The Cincinnati native made a spectacular debut that had the fans roaring at Riverfront Stadium on Aug. 13 when he gave up an unearned run to the first three batters he faced and then shut out the Padres on three hits the rest of the game to win a 3-1 decision . . . Jeff helped his own cause with an RBI double . . . He showed the Padres that was no fluke a few weeks later in San Diego when he beat them again, allowing only 5 hits and 1 run in 7.1 innings . . . In his third start for the Reds, Russell not only recorded a victory, but hit his first major league home run off Ferguson Jenkins at Wrigley Field . . . He experienced both ecstasy and agony on Sept. 5 in San Francisco when he took a no-hitter into the eighth inning before giving up two hits that cost him the game, 3-2 . . . Prior to his early August promotion to the Reds, Russell posted a 5-5 record for Indianapolis, along with a 3.55 ERA that was leading the American Association at the time . . .

CAREER: Good pro start in 1980 with 6-5 record at Eugene and 3.00 ERA that was fourth in Northwest League . . . Outstanding 1981 season at Tampa with 10-4 record and 2.01 ERA that ranked third in Florida State League . . . In 1982, Jeff may have been the best pitcher in the Eastern League when he was healthy, but he twice had to leave the starting rotation due to elbow trouble and only played the equivalent of a half-season . . .

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Lee Russell is single and lives in Cincinnati, OH, where he was 1979 graduate of Wyoming H.S. and earned all-state honors in baseball and was twice all-city in football . . . Attended Gulf Coast (FL) Community College . . . In 1978, won Reds' home run hitting contest for high school athletes at Riverfront Stadium . . .

Bill Scherrer

No. 34

Pitcher

Born: 1-20-58, Tonawanda, NY

Ht: 6-4

Bats: Left

Throws: Left

1983 SEASON: Scherrer was one of the top rookie pitchers in the N.L., leading the club with 10 saves while appearing in 73 games, a club record for a rookie pitcher and the second highest total for any Reds' pitcher in the last 10 years . . . Tom Hume pitched in 80 games in 1978 . . . Scherrer's total appearances ranked fourth in the league . . . He had a 2.75 ERA against Western Division teams and 2.72 against the East . . . He had one win, five saves and a 2.79 ERA prior to the All-Star break and one win, five saves and 2.68 afterwards . . . But the lefthander did have some real hot streaks . . . In late May, he allowed one run in 16.2 innings over 10 games (0.54) while recording two saves and a win . . . He had a virtual duplication of that, beginning in mid-August, with a 13-game stretch in which he again gave up one run in 16.2 innings . . . Scherrer then closed out the season without allowing an earned run in his last 13 innings over seven games . . .

CAREER: Began as pro in Western Carolinas League where he won nine games, ranked fifth in strikeouts and ninth in ERA, while allowing only four homers all season . . . Had spectacular 1979 season with Tampa with 12-3 record and 1.81 ERA that was second in Florida State League . . . Did not allow home run in 159 innings . . . After two seasons at Waterbury, one as starter and one in relief, Bill had one of the most unique seasons in 1982 that any player ever experienced, pitching at four levels in one season . . . He began in the Class A Florida State League and moved up through the Class AA Eastern League and Class AAA American Association before ending the season with the Reds, where he retired 18 of the 19 batters he faced in three relief appearances to earn a pair of starts . . . He played a key role in Indianapolis' successful run at the American Association championship, including pitching a victory in the opening game of the playoffs . . .

PERSONAL: William Joseph Scherrer and his wife Michelle (Purcielli) live in Cincinnati with their children: Lynn (1-25-80) and John (5-3-83) . . . 1976 graduate of Cardinal O'Hara H.S. (Tonawanda, NY), where he earned all-state honors in baseball . . . Attended University of Nevada-Las Vegas . . .

Mike Smith

No. 53

Pitcher

Born: 2-23-61, Jackson, MS

Ht: 6-0

Bats: Right

Wt: 175

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as free agent, 5-11-81 (Scout Julian Mock).

1983 SEASON: Smith hasn't had much trouble with hitters in his short professional career, but a broken foot put a severe damper on his season, limiting the hard-throwing righthander to just 28.1 innings . . . He still managed to come up with seven saves and a pair of victories out of the bullpen . . .

CAREER: Signed as an undrafted player out of Utica, MS, Junior College, Smith made an impressive pro debut in 1981 when he recorded 8 saves and 5 wins and had a 1.37 ERA in 22 appearances for Billings while striking out 52 hitters in 46 innings . . . That was just a warmup for his spectacular 1982 season when Mike was named Florida State League Relief Man of the Year with a league-leading 21 saves to go with a 7-1 record and 1.23 ERA . . . He struck out 80 batters in 80.1 innings and was selected as Tampa's MVP . . . He was also named to the FSL All-Star team . . .

PERSONAL: Michael Anthony Smith is single and lives in Jackson, MS . . . He graduated from Murrah H.S. in Jackson and played baseball at Utica Junior College . . .

Mario Soto

No. 36

Pitcher

Born: 7-12-56, Bani, Dominican Republic

Ht: 6-0

Bats: Right

Wt: 185

Throws: Right

HOW ACQUIRED: Signed as free agent, 12-3-73. (Scout George Zuraw)

1983 SEASON: Soto added to his stature as one of the top pitchers in the major leagues with his finest season . . . He led the N.L. with 18 complete games; finished second with 17 victories, 273.2 innings pitched and 242 strikeouts; ranked fourth with a 2.70 ERA; and was fifth with three shutouts . . . For the second year in a row, baseball writers covering the team voted him as the Reds' Most Valuable Player as well as the Outstanding Pitcher . . . He is the only Reds' player ever to win both honors simultaneously . . . As usual, strikeouts played a major role in Soto's year . . . His total was the fourth highest in club history as he fanned 10 or more six times, giving him a career total of 21 . . . But Soto was more concerned with victories and finishing the job in 1983 . . . His victory total was not only a career high, but the most by a Reds pitcher since 1974, when Jack Billingham won 19 . . . His innings pitched were the most since Billingham worked 293.1 in 1973 . . . And no Cincinnati pitcher had worked more than 18 complete games since Ken Raffensberger recorded 20 back in 1949 . . . Soto averaged more than eight innings per start . . . Mario was only a little offense away from being a 20-game winner . . . Four of his losses were by scores of 1-0, 2-1, 2-1 and 2-0 . . . Mario was a perfect 4-0 in May with a 1.40 ERA . . . He had a 3-1 record and a 1.03 ERA against Pittsburgh, but there's nothing new about that . . . His career figures against the hard-hitting Pirates are 9-3 and 1.84 . . . His other favorite foes in 1983 were San Francisco (3-0, 2.16) and Philadelphia (2-1, 1.33) . . . Soto was accorded the honor of serving as the starting pitcher for the N.L. in the All-Star game in Chicago . . . He capped off the year by signing the biggest and longest contract in club history, five-year deal with two option seasons that could keep him in a Reds' uniform through the 1990 season . . .

Rules of Interest

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADING REGULATIONS: Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

INTER-LEAGUE TRADES: Midnight, five days after the World Series until 5 p.m. on the last scheduled day of Winter Meetings. Another period Feb. 15 — April 1.

TRADING WITHIN LEAGUE: Midnight, the last day of the season until 8 p.m. (EDT), June 15 — No waivers necessary. From 8 p.m. (EDT), June 15 until the end of the season — League waivers necessary.

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI that gives your team a lead that it never relinquishes.

BATTING AND ERA CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings pitched.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (A) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (B) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING MAGIC NUMBER: To figure "Magic Number" in pennant race, compute the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead, in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE: Pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in game won by his club; (2) he is not the winning pitcher; (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions; (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; (b) or he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base or at bat or on deck; (c) or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Reds Three-Time All-Star Hosts

The All-Star game has been played in Cincinnati three times since it was first begun in 1933. Twice it was staged at Crosley Field — 1938 and 1953 — and once at Riverfront Stadium, in 1970. All three games saw the National League win.

History of the Reds

The history of professional baseball begins in Cincinnati, where the "ancestors" of the current Cincinnati Reds, the Red Stockings, began play more than a century ago.

That first professional team, led by Harry and George Wright played on a spot where Union Terminal on Cincinnati's near West Side now stands. Its first recorded game was a practice contest against a "Picked Nine" from Cincinnati, April 17, 1869, which was won by the Red Stockings, 24-15. After six more games of this first "pre-season" the Reds embarked on their famous tour. The first regular game was scheduled against the Antioch Nine on May 31, but that became the first rainout in professional baseball history. The first official game took place the next day, June 1, 1869 as the Red Stockings defeated the Mansfield Independents, 48-14.

That first Red Stockings team that was organized by Harry Wright, a Newport, Ky., jeweler, was fabulous. During the first two years of play the team went 130 consecutive games without a loss before the Brooklyn Atlantics finally beat the Red Stockings in June of 1870.

In 1876 the National League was founded and the Red Stockings became a charter member, although the club dropped out of the league in 1881 for 9 years because the league would not permit sale of beer in the park. The Red Stockings joined the American Association for the 1882-83 seasons and also played in the Union Association, but rejoined the National League in 1890.

The turn of the century saw one of the most colorful men ever associated with the team take over the presidency of the club. August "Garry" Herrmann was the club president from 1902 until 1927 when he was forced to retire because of blindness.

A host of famous players paraded through the Herrmann regime. Noodles Hahn was a standout pitcher and Cy Seymour won the Reds' first batting championship, hitting .377 in 1905, a mark that still stands in the Cincinnati record book.

And later came Edd Roush, an all-time great centerfielder, and Heinie Groh, the famous third baseman who used a bottle bat. They formed the nucleus of Cincinnati's first pennant winner in 1919 and then beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series.

The Reds came close the next few years, but couldn't match up with John McGraw's powerful New York Giants. Players such as Eppa Rixey, who holds the club record with 179 career wins and Bubbles Hargrave, the first catcher ever to win a batting title, kept the Reds in the running during the 20's, but there wasn't another pennant until 1939.

After Herrmann resigned control of the club in the late 20's, Sidney Weil assumed command. When the depression crippled him, Powel Crosley purchased the Reds, more for civic purposes than any other cause. It was strongly rumored that the Cincinnati franchise might be moved and Crosley felt that the city needed a major league baseball team.

Crosley, the famous radio tycoon, was sold on the franchise by Larry MacPhail, the club's general manager. MacPhail, who had made a name for himself at Columbus, was one of the early promoters and opened up a new era of baseball when the Reds became the first team to play at night. Lights were installed at Crosley Field and the Reds and Phillies met in the first night game on May 24, 1935.

Two years later a new chapter opened in Cincinnati as Warren Giles was named the club's general manager. Although the Reds finished last in Giles' first year, the team began to move in 1938, jumping to fourth. By 1939 the club had matured into the National League's best. The Reds won back to back pennants in '39 — '40 and captured the World Series in 1940, beating the Detroit Tigers in an exciting seven-game series.

Some of the great names of Reds' history were on those clubs. Paul Derringer, Bucky Walters and Johnny Vander Meer were well-known pitchers. Ernie Lombardi, Frank McCormick and Walters were Most Valuable Player winners.

World War II and age caught up with the Reds in the 40's and the club began rebuilding in the late 40's and early 50's. Ewell Blackwell became the only pitcher to pitch in six consecutive All-Star games. Ted Kluszewski was signed off the Indiana University campus.

But Giles left the Reds in 1951 and was named president of the National League.

His successor was Gabe Paul who put together a powerful hitting team in the mid-fifties. The Reds nearly won the pennant in 1956, losing by two games to Brooklyn, but the fans fell in love with this team. The Reds hit the million mark in paid attendance for the first time and in '56 they tied the NL record for the most team home runs, 221. Birdie Tebbetts was named Manager of the Year.

Fred Hutchinson took command of the Reds in 1959 and in '61 they startled most baseball "experts" by winning the NL pennant. Frank Robinson, who had been Rookie of the Year in 1956, was Most Valuable Player, and Vada Pinson nearly won the batting title. Under Hutch, who died of cancer in 1964, the Reds remained close. They won 98 games in 1962, but finished third. They came within one game in 1964.

Rumors again spread in 1966 that the Reds would leave Cincinnati. They were silenced quickly, however, when a group of businessmen headed by Francis L. Dale purchased the Reds and pledged allegiance to the city with a 40-year lease, thus assuring construction of a new stadium.

The group named Bob Howsam General Manager in 1967, and six years later he moved up to the club presidency. In 1978 Dick Wagner was elected President of the Reds with Howsam assuming the title of Vice-Chairman.

Sparky Anderson became the manager in 1970 and guided the team for nine seasons, leading the team to five Western Division titles; four National League pennants; and two World Championships.

The Reds moved into Riverfront Stadium June 30, 1970, ending a long association with Crosley Field, and before that Redland Field. A total of 4,543 games were played at the old park which was officially dedicated April 11, 1912. It was Redland Field then and became Crosley Field after Crosley purchased the Reds.

Riverfront Years

The Riverfront years have been good ones for the Reds.

Reds fans said goodbye to Crosley Field and the first century of baseball's oldest professional team June 24, 1970 and six days later, a little over two years after the first spadeful of dirt was turned, Riverfront Stadium opened to a crowd of over 50,000 cheering fans.

From 1970, when the team won its first Western Division title, through 1979, when it won its sixth Divisional race, the Reds won more games and more titles than any other major league team.

The Reds piled up 953 regular season victories in the ten years of the 1970's, an average of 95.3 per season with .593 winning percentage and an impressive mark of consistency.

The two teams involved in the 1979 World Series were the Reds' top challengers. Baltimore won 944 regular season games and Pittsburgh won 916.

Reds fans saw a total of 12 championships by the Reds, six Western Division titles (1970-72-73-75-76-79); four National League titles (1970-72-75-76); and back-to-back World Championships in 1975 and 1976.

Oakland, with 11 titles in a five-year period, was next. Pittsburgh ended the decade with 10 titles and Baltimore had 9.

The 70's will be remembered not only for the championship appearances but for the many memorable moments that were packed into that 10-year period.

The All-Star game came to Cincinnati in 1970 and it was a good one, with the National League winning in the 12th inning when Pete Rose crashed into Cleveland Catcher Ray Fosse to score the winning run. Johnny Bench, at 22 years of age, won the Most Valuable Player award that year, the first of six awards Reds players would garner in the decade.

In 1978, Pete Rose became the 13th player in history to get 3,000 hits and later that year he put together a 44-game hitting streak, longest in modern National League history.

As the decade progressed, the Reds asserted themselves more and more with their pitching. Tom Seaver was acquired in 1977 and he joined a talented crop of hurlers developed through the Reds farm system.

In 1981, Seaver became only the fifth pitcher in major league history to record 3,000 strikeouts. It was also a year in which the Reds had the best overall record in baseball, but did not qualify for post-season play because of the split-season, finishing second in both the first half and second half races.

The 1983 season marked the return to the helm of the Reds of Bob Howsam, architect of the "Team of the 70s."

Championship Series History

The Reds have played in six of the National League Championship Series since they first began in 1969. Following is a summary: 1970—The Reds made their first appearance in the Championship Series in 1970—the second year of the post-season competition—and swept three straight games from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

In the opener that year Gary Nolan and Dock Ellis each pitched nine scoreless innings before the Reds broke loose for three in the 10th. Pete Rose singled home pinch-hitter Ty Cline, who had led off with a triple, getting the Reds on the scoreboard and Lee May followed with a two-run insurance single.

The Reds won the second game 3-1 as Bobby Tolan scored three times. Jim Merritt recorded the victory. And in the final that year the Reds beat the Pirates 3-2 as Tolan singled home Rose with a two-run insurance single.

1972—This Series is one of those unforgettable ones. It was the Series of Johnny Bench's dramatic home run; of Roberto Clemente's last game; of Bob Moose's wild pitch.

Pittsburgh won the opener 5-1, but the Reds came back to even things up with a 5-3 triumph in Game 2. The Pirates took a 2-1 advantage after the third game as they scored a 3-2 decision. But in Game 4 Ross Grimsley pitched a two hitter—both hits were by Clemente—as the Reds stormed to a 7-1 triumph. Then came the big fifth game.

The Pirates led 3-2 going to the bottom of the ninth inning. Bench, who was facing Dave Giusti, fouled off several pitches before drilling a game-tying home run over the right center field fence. Then with two outs, George Foster was on third base when Moose uncorked a wild pitch. Foster came home and the Reds won the pennant with a 4-3 victory.

1973 — The 1973 Series will long be remembered for the Game 3 incident involving Rose and Bud Harrelson who started a brawl that brought both benches on to the field and a barrage of debris from the Shea Stadium stands.

The Reds won the Series opener, 2-1, as Bench hit a ninth inning home run. The next day it was 5-0 Mets. The Mets beat the Reds 9-2 in Game 3, which was held up about 20 minutes while order was being restored.

Rose was the Reds' hero in Game 4. He hit a 12th inning game-winning home run to tie the series. But in Game 5 Tom Seaver was the winner, 7-2, as the Mets snapped a 2-2 tie in the fifth with a four-run outburst to win the Series.

1975 — Stealing 11 bases in 11 attempts, the Reds won the National League pennant with three straight victories over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Joe Morgan stole three bases sparking an 8-3 opening game win while Ken Griffey stole three more in a 6-1 triumph in Game 2. Griffey was a big hitter in Game 1, knocking in three runs while Tony Perez and Dave Concepcion sparked the offense in Game 2 with three hits each.

The Reds overcame a 14-strikeout performance by John Candelaria to win Game 3. Concepcion and Rose hit home runs as the Reds won the game 5-3 in 10 innings.

1976 — Cincinnati made it another sweep, this time over the Philadelphia Phillies. Comebacks highlighted the Reds win.

The Reds won the opener, 6-3, sparked by Pete Rose, who raised his lifetime LCS batting average to .378 during the Series.

In the second game, Jim Lonborg held the Reds hitless until the sixth inning when the Reds exploded for four runs, wiping out a 2-0 deficit. The big blow of that inning was a three-run error off the glove of Richie Allen.

Cincinnati made one of their patented Frank Merriwell finishes in Game 3. Trailing the Phillies 6-4 in the bottom of the ninth, George Foster and Johnny Bench homered off Ron Reed to tie the score. Then moments later Dave Concepcion slid safely across the plate, scoring on Ken Griffey's high bounding infield hit.

1979 — This Series will be remembered by Reds fans for controversy and two ultra-close games as the Pirates won in three games. A pitching duel in Game 1 between Tom Seaver and John Candelaria became a 2-2 deadlock after nine innings. A Willie Stargell home run in the 11th put the contest in the Pirates' column, 5-2.

Game 2 was another extra inning win for the Pirates, 3-2 in 10, but a ball that looked on television replay like a Dave Collins catch and was ruled a Phil Garner hit by umpire Frank Pulli may have made the difference. Garner eventually scored in that third inning. The Pirates clinched the pennant in their home park with a 7-1 win before going on to win the World Series.

World Series History

The Cincinnati Reds played in four World Series during the 1970's and a total of eight overall — 1919, 1939, 1940, 1961, 1970, 1972, 1975, and 1976. Following is a history:

1919

Cincinnati's first appearance in a World Series was a successful one. The Reds beat the Chicago White Sox five games to three in what was then a nine game World Series.

Earle "Greasy" Neale, who would later gain fame in college and professional football, was the star of the Series for Cincinnati. He batted .357 to spark all hitters. On the mound Hod Eller won a pair of games.

The White Sox held the NL batting champion, Edd Roush, to a .214 average but he was sensational on defense, saving nearly a dozen runs in eight games with circus catches.

The New York Yankees swept the Reds in four straight games in the '39 World Series. It was a pitching dominated Series as the Yankees hit just .206 while the Reds batted .203. New York out-scored the Reds 20-8 and hit seven home runs to the Reds' none. Charlie Keller was the Yankees' star, batting .438 with three home runs. Frank McCormick hit .400 for Cincinnati.

Red Ruffing beat Paul Derringer, 2-1, in the Opener while Monte Pearson hurled a two-hit shutout as the Yankees won the second game, 4-0. New York won Game 3, 10-5 and then captured the Series with a 7-3 triumph in the fourth game.

This Series went to the wire with the Reds beating the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, in the seventh game to capture the World Series.

Derringer and Bucky Walters each won two games for Cincinnati while Buck Newsom won a pair for Detroit. Newsom beat Derringer, 7-1 to win the opener, but Walters knotted the Series with a 5-3 victory in Game 2. Tommy Bridges beat Jim Turner in Game 3 as the Tigers scored a 7-4 triumph, but Derringer came back from his opening game defeat to even the Series once more, 5-2, breaking a Series jinx for him that started with his first appearance in the 1931 World Series.

Detroit went back on top three games to two in Game 5 as Newsom blanked the Reds, 8-0. Walters saved the Reds from elimination in Game 6, however, as he hurled a shutout, 4-0, setting the stage for the first Game 7 in a World Series in seven years.

The Reds scored two runs in the seventh inning to come from behind and win the game and the Series, 2-1. The winning run came home on Billy Myers' long sacrifice fly.

The Reds and the Yankees met for the second time and New York won this World Series, four games to one. The Yankees won the American League pennant as Roger Maris broke Babe Ruth's home run record with 61 and they didn't let up in the Series.

Whitey Ford got New York off and running in the opener with a two-hit, 2-0 victory. But Cincinnati tied the Series the next day as Joey Jay pitched a 6-2 decision.

Game 3 went to New York, 3-2, as Maris hit a game-winning home run in the ninth inning. Ford pitched six more shutout innings in Game 4, a 7-0 Yankee triumph. And then they finished off Cincinnati with a 13-5 victory in Game 5.

Brooks Robinson dominated this World Series for Baltimore, both at the plate and in the field. He batted .429 and time after time thwarted the Reds with diving catches at third base. It was a five-game Series with the Reds winning Game 4.

The Orioles won the opener, 4-3, as Robinson hit a game-winning home run in the seventh inning. It was in this game that the now famous Bernie Carbo — Elrod Hendricks — Ken Burkhart collision took place.

Ty Cline hit a chopper up the first base line. Umpire Burkhart signaled fair as he straddled the base line in front of the plate. Whirling, Hendricks attempted to tag Carbo as he came flying down from third. As Hendricks whirled, he knocked Burkhart to the seat of his pants and he lunged at Carbo. The Reds argued that Hendricks tagged Carbo with his glove, but the ball was in his right hand. The Reds protested but the play stood with Carbo out.

Game 2, without a wild scene, was won 6-5 by the Orioles. In Game 3 Baltimore scored a 9-3 triumph as Dave McNally became the first pitcher ever to hit a grand slam in Series play.

Lee May's three-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 4 saved the Reds from elimination 6-5, but Mike Cuellar cruised to a 9-3 Series-clinching triumph in Game 5.

1972

This was one of the closest World Series of all time. Six of the seven games were decided by one run.

Gene Tenace hit a pair of home runs in the opener as the Oakland A's beat the Reds, 3-2. Game 2 went to Oakland 2-1 as Joe Rudi made a ninth inning leaping catch to save the game for the A's.

Jack Billingham pitched a three-hit, 1-0 win in Game 3 to get the Reds going, but Oakland won the fourth game with a 3-2 win, scoring twice in the bottom of the ninth.

Game 5 was Cincinnati's from the first pitch, a home run by Pete Rose. In the end the Reds won it, 5-4 as Joe Morgan threw out John Odom at the plate to end the game. The only lopsided game went to Cincinnati in Game 6, 8-1. The A's won the Series the next day, 3-2.

This Series was called by many the most exciting ever. The Reds won it in Game 7 as Morgan knocked in the winning run with a two-out, two-strike single.

Luis Tiant pitched a shutout in the first as Boston took a 1-0 lead. But in Game 2 the Reds scored twice in the ninth and came from behind, 3-2. Game 3 was Cincinnati's, 6-5 in 10 innings, as Morgan delivered the winning hit. Tiant evened the count in Game 4, though, nipping the Reds, 5-4 thanks to a five-run Boston fourth.

Tony Perez hit a pair of home runs in Game 5 as the Reds scored a 6-2 win. Then in Game 6 the Red Sox won the game as Carlton Fisk hit a home run in the bottom of the 12th inning.

That set the stage for game 7. The Reds trailed 3-0 going the the sixth, but Perez hit a two-run homer. Pete Rose singled home the tying run in the seventh and in the ninth Morgan delivered his game-winner.

1976

The Reds became the first National League team in more than 50 years to win two consecutive World Championships when they swept the Yankees in four straight games. Not since the New York Giants of 1921-22 had a NL team won two straight titles.

Cincinnati outscored New York 22-8 in the convincing victory. Johnny Bench led the Reds onslaught. He batted .533, the fourth highest World Series batting average ever, as he was selected the MVP of the Series.

Bench had plenty of help as the Reds batted .313 as a team. The pitching staff posted a nifty 2.00 ERA.

Cincinnati Reds Most Valuable Players

Eight different Cincinnati Reds have won National League Most Valuable Player honors since the award was first established in 1931.

Six times during the 1970's a Reds player captured the honor, two each by Johnny Bench and Joe Morgan and one each by George Foster and Pete Rose.

The first Reds winner was Ernie Lombardi in 1938. Others to win were Bucky Walters, Frank McCormick and Frank Robinson.

Following is a capsulized summary of each Cincinnati player's MVP winning season:

ERNIE LOMBARDI (1938) — This Cincinnati catcher won the National League batting title with a mark of .342, becoming only the second backstop in baseball history to win the swat crown. Lombardi played a big role in Cincinnati's climb from eighth place in 1937 to fourth place in 1938. Lombardi collected 229 votes, 63 more than runnerup Bill Lee of Chicago.

BUCKY WALTERS (1939) — This righthanded pitcher, who won 27 games against only 11 losses, sparked the Reds to their first pennant in 20 years. Walters also led the league in earned run average at 2.29 and tied for the most strikeouts. He recieved 303 votes in the balloting while Johnny Mize was runnerup with 178.

FRANK McCORMICK (1940) — This righthanded hitting first baseman batted .309 and led the league in doubles, sparking the Reds to their second straight NL pennant. McCormick also led the league in hits for the third straight year and knocked in 127 runs. He received 274 votes, 65 more than runnerup Johnny Mize.

FRANK ROBINSON (1961) — This Reds rightfielder sparked Cincinnati to the pennant with his timely hits and consistent power. Robinson batted .323, hit 37 home runs and knocked in 124 runs. He collected 219 votes, 102 more than runnerup Orlando Cepeda.

JOHNNY BENCH (1970) — This Reds catcher became the youngest MVP ever when he was a landslide winner at the age of 22. Bench led the majors in home runs (45) and runs batted in (148), becoming the first catcher since Roy Campanella in 1955 to win. He received 326 votes, only 10 short of the maximum attainable. Billy Williams was runnerup with 218.

JOHNNY BENCH (1972) — Johnny became the first Cincinnati repeat winner in the MVP balloting as he out-distanced Billy Williams for the second time. Bench hit 40 home runs and knocked in 125 runs. He received 263 votes to Williams' 211.

PETE ROSE (1973) — The Reds captain won his third batting championship and set a club record with 230 hits as he won his first Most Valuable Player Award. Rose batted .338, sparking Cincinnati to its second straight division championship. Rose received 274 votes, just 24 more than Willie Stargell in one of the tightest MVP races ever.

JOE MORGAN (1975) — This Reds second baseman, who batted .327, hit 17 home runs and knocked in 94 runs, was a whopping MVP winner. It was the largest winning margin in history as Morgan amassed 321½ points to runnerup Greg Luzinski's 154 points.

JOE MORGAN (1976) — Morgan became only the second player in National League history to win the MVP back-to-back. Only Ernie Banks of Chicago, in 1958-59, had accomplished this. Morgan batted .320, hit 27 homers and knocked in 111 runs. He collected 311 votes to teammate George Foster's 221.

GEORGE FOSTER (1977) — Foster crashed 52 home runs and knocked in 149 runs, top-notch credentials for MVP selection. The hard hitting Reds leftfielder also batted .320. He collected 291 votes, compared to 255 for Philadelphia's Greg Luzinski.

LARRY BARTON JR. Manager, Billings

Larry Barton adds a new dimension to his baseball career in 1984 as he takes on managerial duties, in addition to retaining his position as the Reds' scouting coordinator for the western United States.

The 44-year-old Barton has been a Reds' scout since 1968, after four years as a catcher in the Los Angeles Dodgers' organization. This is his first managerial job in pro baseball. He has managed several years in a weekend winter league in Los Angeles, involving both pros and amateurs.

MARC BOMBARD Manager, Tampa

Marc Bombard takes over as skipper of the Tampa Tarpons, after managing the Reds' Billings team the last two seasons. His 1983 team won the Pioneer League championship.

Bombard, 34, pitched in the Reds' organization from 1971 through 1976 and was a player-coach at Tampa from 1974 through 1976. He pitched three no-hitters, including one perfect game. He served as a Reds' minor league pitching instructor from 1977 through 1981.

SCOTT BREEDEN Pitching Coach

Scott Breeden rejoined the Reds' organization in October, 1983 in the same role he had from 1968 through 1981.

A former pitcher, Breeden retired after a 12-year career midway through the 1967 season to manage Wytheville in the Reds' farm system. He became the organization pitching instructor the following year.

The 46-year-old Breeden graduated from Reily High School near Oxford, Ohio and attended Miami University in Oxford.

HARRY DORISH Pitching Coach

Former major league pitcher Harry Dorish has been a farm system pitching instructor in the Reds' organization since November, 1981.

In a 10-year big league career (1947-56), all in the American League, Dorish totalled 45 victories for Boston, St. Louis, Chicago and Baltimore.

Dorish, 61, has been a scout, a minor league manager, a coach with Atlanta (1968-71) and a farm system pitching instructor for Atlanta (1972-73), Cleveland (1974-77) and Pittsburgh (1978-81).

GENE DUSAN Manager, Wichita

Gene Dusan brings a very successful managerial record to the Reds' organization. In six seasons as a minor league manager, including three years in Class AAA at Portland and Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League, he's never had a losing season.

Dusan, a 34-year-old former catcher, was bullpen coach for the New York Mets in 1983. His nine-year playing career included 1½ seasons with the Reds' Indianapolis farm team in 1973 and 1974.

JIM HOFF

Field Coordinator

After 11 years of managing the Reds' minor league system, 38-year-old Jim Hoff was named Field Coordinator on September 30, 1983.

He supervises and directs all spring training activities for the farm system; works with the managers of the teams during the season on their overall instructional programs; and directs the Florida Instructional League operation.

A former infielder in the Reds' farm system from 1967 through 1972, Hoff graduated from Cincinnati's Xavier University in 1967. He later attended Notre Dame Law School.

PAUL KIRSCH

Coach, Cedar Rapids

After spending the last three seasons as a first baseman and outfielder in the Reds' farm system, 27-year-old Paul Kirsch has made the switch to coaching. His return to Cedar Rapids should bring back good memories. Kirsch spent part of the 1982 season there and hit .353 in 60 games. His father, the late Don Kirsch, was varsity baseball coach at the University of Oregon for 23 years and was inducted into the College Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 1972.

TED KLUSZEWSKI

Hitting Instructor

During a distinguished 15-year major league playing career, Ted Kluszewski established himself as one of baseball's premier hitters. Now he's recognized as one of the top hitting instructors in the game.

A member of the Reds' Hall of Fame, Klu enjoyed his most productive season in 1954, when he led the National League with 49 homers and 141 runs batted in. His .642 slugging percentage that year still stands as a Reds' all-time high.

Kluszewski, 59, was a Reds' coach from 1970 through 1978. He was named hitting instructor in 1979.

JIM LETT

Manager, Cedar Rapids

Jim Lett is only 33 years old, but he's already in his eighth year of managing in the Reds' farm system.

He started his managerial career at Shelby in 1977 and later managed teams at Greensboro, Cedar Rapids, Tampa and Waterbury. Lett previously managed at Cedar Rapids in 1980. In 1983, he was the skipper at Waterbury.

Lett was an infielder in the Reds' farm system from 1973 through 1975.

JACK LIND

Manager, Vermont

Jack Lind joins the Reds' organization after leading the California Angels' Redwood team to the Class A California League championship in 1983, his first season as a manager. He was assistant baseball coach at Arizona State University the two previous years.

Lind, 37, had an 11-year playing career as an infielder, including service with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1974 and 1975 and one season with the Tokyo Giants in Japan.

DANNY LITWHILER

Traveling Coach

Former major league outfielder Danny Litwhiler is in his second season as a traveling coach in the Reds' farm system. He joined the Reds after 28 years as a college head baseball coach at Florida State (1955-63) and Michigan State (1964-82).

Litwhiler, 67, played 11 seasons in the National League in the 1940s and 1950s, including three years with Cincinnati (1949-51). He was a NL All-Star in 1942 for Philadelphia and also played for St. Louis and Boston.

SAM MEJIAS Manager, Sarasota

Sam Mejias managed the Reds' Eugene team in the Northwest League in 1983, his first season as a manager.

Mejias was an outfielder for the Reds from 1979 through 1981. He previously played for St. Louis, Montreal and the Chicago Cubs.

The 31-year-old Mejias also scouts for the Reds in the Dominican Republic.

BARRY MOSS Coach, Tampa

Barry Moss, an infielder and outfielder for 11 years, is in his first season of full-time coaching. His playing experience included four seasons in the Reds' organization (1974-77). From 1980 through 1983, he was a player-coach for Utica of the NY-Penn League, while also working as the team's Assistant Business Manager. The 30-year-old Moss hit .359 for Utica in 1983.

RANDY TOWN Coach, Sarasota

A pitcher in the Reds' farm system from 1978 through 1981, Randy Town rejoins the Reds' organization after coaching college baseball the last two seasons at Cal. State Stanislaus in Turlock, California. The 27-year-old native of Vancouver, British Columbia, was a member of the Stanislaus team which won the NCAA Division III national championship in 1977.
